Aamu Milonoff began her acting career at a very young age, making her television debut in Matti Kinnunen's ELAMAA SUUREMPAA when she was only 12 years old. Since then, she has worked consistently across numerous TV & Film projects such as: Teppo Airaksinen's dark comedy series DUKE OF SIPOO; Juha Lankinen's THE HAPPIEST HOUR OF THE WOLF; as 'Chrystal' in MAANANTAI by Samuli Valkama; as 'Olivia' in the drama LITTLE WING, and 'Pinja' in STUPID YOUNG HEART - both of which were directed by Selma Vilhunen. She made her stage debut at The Finnish National Theatre in 2016 in a production of RICHARD III, which was directed by Jussi Nikkilä. Recently Aamu played the lead role of 'Aliisa' in Ulla Heikkila's coming-of-age feature film EDEN, which screened extensively on the international festival circuit. Last year, she shot another lead role in the upcoming feature film PERJANTAI, by Alli Haapasalo. Aamu can next be seen in Netflix's acclaimed Finnish crime & Nordic noir television series DEADWIND which is created & directed by Rike Jokela; and also playing the role of 'Sofia Talvitie' in the crime series PAHAN VÄRI, which is directed by Olli Ilpo Salonen. Her film GIRL PICTURE was selected for competition at Sundance Film Festival - the first Finnish feature film ever to do so - where it won the audience award.
